100
101 TRIBAL MEMBER COMMENT:

102 Elizabeth Davis: May we ask what the items are? And if it's the thing that they were trying to 103 get a group of individuals to donate to this other person on Facebook, is that the same thing
104 that we're talking about here? And then may I ask, what the plan is? I heard you say something 105 about resale. Can we have some information about that please? Are we allowed to ask the 106 amount that is going to be paid for those. Okay. Just curious, we don't get very much 107 information on what's going on and then, that sounds good to me and I would urge you to have 108 strict guidelines because I would hate to see people buy it, at a decent price and then resell it 109 and make a profit. None of us want that. And then the other thing is, would the money that 110 comes in from the resale go back into the fund? I'm thinking that you took it from the set aside 111 for the cultural center or the museum center, so making sure the money goes back is 112 important.

113
114 Bertha Peters: I know the caps that you were talking about. My niece had purchased one, but 115 there was still others. If the Yurok tribe purchases them then they can have tribal members 116 borrow them. What is going to make someone buy a cap if they can borrow it? I realize for 117 ownership, but still yet. I think that if they purchase it, I will not sell it. Just keep it within the 118 tribe. Even though they can borrow a cap from the tribe and it isn't a super lengthy process. It 119 still is a process, and you are still loaning it from the tribe. I realize that. That's all I need to say.
